Cupid and Death, and the Return of Terpsichore

Fri, 2014-07-11 11:25 ? katherine

We've put Cupid and Death off until 2015 (it's a huge project, and we had some difficulty fitting the singers' and dancers' schedules together), so instead in September 2014 Capriol and Affetto are present "The Return of Terpsichore".

It will be a lovely, varied show, with 16th and 17th century dance and music, both refined and popular. All the usual gorgeous dances (and some new ones) to the wonderful music of Affetto, with their spectacular array of instruments: viola da gamba, theorbo, cornet, organ, recorder, sackbut, violin, and of course the human voice.
